

Classroom English - Attention Grabbers

- One two three, eyes on me
- One two, eyes on you.
- Focus pokus, everybody focus.
- Class, class, class, yes yes yes
- Macaroni and cheese, everybody freeze
- When I say sssh, we say sssh
- Alligator, alligator, chop chop
- Stop, look and listen – repeat.
- If you can hear me, put your hand on your head.
- Hands on top, everybody stop.

Clapping in rhythm

Repeat my clap

Finish your conversation with your neighbour in 5, 4, 3,2, 1, zero.

“Is everybody ready to start?” is not really asking polite question but rather “Can everyone pay attention, please? I’m starting the lesson”. Other examples of this include:

- I’m waiting...
- Settle down please.
- We won’t start until everyone is quiet.
- Okay, that’s enough...
- Fingers on lips!

Pour gérer le rangement

- Tidy up time!
- Tidy your things away!
- I need the classroom spotless in 5 minutes!

Une chanson pour le rangement – Clean Up Super Simple Songs <https://youtu.be/SFE0mMWbA-Y>

Clean up, everybody let’s clean up. Put your things away.

Jenny Léger